Mr. Eric Dotun,
Human Resource manager
MyJobMag Food Nigeria Limited

Lagos.

Dear Mr. Eric,

I am glad to apply for the position of a farm manager that was posted on the company's career page as an agriculture enthusiast and a graduate of crop and livestock studies.

As a recent graduate of the University of Lagos, not only did I maintain excellent grades, but I was in charge of one of the school's farm that produced the best crops.

My background in management has made me to become a strong manager of my time to balance academic work and farm work which I am confident will be a strong quality in this position. As chosen team leader, I had to execute plans, listen, motivate and delegate powers to achieve collaborative success.

As a passionate and dedicated farmer, I have been following Food Nigeria on all its social media platforms, and I have been amazed with its healthy food production and farm management policies. I was really excited about the job posting, and I will be delighted to contribute my quota to be part of the success as I grow on the job.

I will appreciate the opportunity of a scheduled time to talk about how I fit into the company. I will call you next week Monday for a follow up. Thank you for the consideration.

Sincerely,

Roselyn Jacobs
